WAIVER OF LIABILITY AND DISCLAIMER – CODE OF CONDUCT AGREEMENT

I, the parent or guardian of the above named individual, acknowledge that participation in athletic events necessarily involves risk of physical injury. I further acknowledge that the programs of the Johnstown Youth Athletic Association or JYAA are administered by parents who volunteer their time rather than by paid professionals. The JYAA operates solely on a volunteer basis and as a member of the JYAA, I will help whenever possible when called on by an officer of the league. In consideration for accepting the registration of the above named individual and permitting the voluntary participation of said individual in its program, I hereby release, discharge, and hold harmless, the JYAA, its employees, volunteers, and other representatives from any claims arising out of or relating to any physical injury that may result to said individual while participating in the JYAA sponsored events, including any physical injury by the negligence of any official, referees, or coaches while performing his/her duties during any practices or games. By signing this waiver you, the parent or guardian, and the child are agreeing to the code of conduct of the JYAA and any violation of the code of conduct could mean immediate suspension from JYAA activities. The JYAA does not guarantee placement of the child; any request must be submitted in writing at the time of application submission stating the reason for the request. As a parent or guardian, I understand that it may become necessary at my own expense to provide additional equipment/ clothing for my child to participate. The JYAA encourages parents to purchase, at their own expense, additional protection devices like the heart guard worn during baseball season.
